

Michael O'Neill

General Information

A senior multi-track personal injury specialist and general civil counsel, Michael is based in London and North Yorkshire. His practice takes him nationwide.

Regular clients describe Michael as very client-friendly and approachable. He particularly enjoys a challenge and is always interested in bringing his wealth of experience to help with an unusual or difficult case.

Areas of law

- Personal Injury
- Clinical Negligence
- Professional Negligence

Personal Injury

Michael's personal injury practice largely comprises representing claimants involved in:

- Workplace accidents, including those occurring in the railway, oilrig, and shipping industries
- Actions against the Ministry of Defence (MOD)
- Road traffic accidents
- High-value, complex, catastrophic and fatal cases, including inquests

Professional Negligence

Michael has particular experience in acting for solicitors in professional negligence cases.

Education

- Inns of Court Law School
- Oxford University

Personal Interests

When his practice permits, Michael enjoys classical music, fishing and horse racing.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX