

Geoffrey Mott

General Information

A skilled advocate, Geoffrey Mott has a well-deserved reputation for his thorough research and presentation. He is popular with clients and solicitors alike for his approachability and his ability to absorb and explain intricate issues. Geoffrey's preparation and attention to detail invariably produce successful outcomes. He is undaunted by complex and difficult cases. Based in London, he is happy to travel.

In March 2023 Geoffrey successfully defended a Highway Authority in the first personal injury claim to reach trial in the UK brought by an unlawful e-scooter rider.

Geoffrey has a wealth of experience across a broad range of civil law, including commercial, sale of goods, partnership, insurance, building and boundary disputes, landlord and tenant, housing and co-ownership of property. He has conducted hearings at all levels up to and including the Court of Appeal. He has appeared before Tribunals (including the Solicitors' Disciplinary Tribunal) and Adjudicators (regarding construction contracts pursuant to the Housing Grants, Construction and Regeneration Act 1996). Geoffrey has experience of dealing with health and safety and a wide variety of issues connected with highway maintenance, including claims for damaged apparatus and services.

A specialist in all aspects of personal injury work, Geoffrey has extensive experience in representing both claimants and defendants. He also acts in clinical and dental negligence cases.
