Kye Herbert (2013)

Barrister

Introduction:

Kye is an approachable and down to earth specialist Family/Children Law Barrister with 13 years' experience in Children Law, having represented parents, Local Authorities and children through their Children's Guardians in Children Act proceedings.

He has a growing practice in Deprivation of Liberty applications in the High Court (Inherent Jurisdiction) and the Court of Protection and is also experienced in advice and advocacy work in respect of Judicial Reviews of decisions relating to social services for unaccompanied asylum-seeking children.

Services to members of the public in private Family law proceedings have included contact and residence disputes, divorce proceedings, Schedule 1 Children Act, TOLATA claims and domestic abuse injunctions.

He is skilled in thoroughly digesting case papers, giving practical advice and drafting bespoke applications and associated pleadings, including position statements, skeleton arguments and detailed written legal submissions.

Skills summary

- Advocacy before a range of tribunals, including contested multi-day trials, including remote advice and advocacy.
- Producing well-researched, practical and plain English legal advice.
