Ravi Sethi (2020)

Barrister

Introduction:

Called to the Bar in 2020 after a successful career as a Solicitor – Advocate, working in law since 2004, Ravi has dealt with every aspect of a case from initial instruction through to final hearing. He has a thriving practice which is split between public law (care proceedings), family law (children), domestic violence and criminal law.

Prior to joining the bar, he was one of the few solicitors to have obtained both the prestigious Resolution Specialist Accreditation scheme in Family Law, a mark of quality as well as obtaining similar credentials in Crime, the Criminal Law Accreditation Scheme enabling him to practice as a duty solicitor and police station representative.

Ravi has an empathetic manner and can provide realistic advice to clients in a straightforward, easy to understand manner with a passion for learning and a commitment to keeping up with the ever-changing developments in his legal areas of practice.

Ravi accepts instructions to advise and represent clients from initial hearings through to contested final hearings and trials. Based in Manchester, he is able to cover all courts in the Northwest as well as further afield with appropriate notice.
