Stephanie Heijdra (2014)

Barrister

Introduction:

I have a mixed common law practice, accepting instructions across a range of civil, immigration and family matters. I am based in London and willing to travel. I am an experienced civil, family, and immigration practitioner, having appeared in numerous successful hearings. I am keen to help my clients find the best possible solutions and I am a good negotiator as well as an approachable, personable individual. Clients have often commended me, on my ability to put them at ease. I am experienced in dealing with a wide range of cases with emphasis on the following:

- Family Law - MATRIMONIAL FINANCE & COHABITATION CLAIMS
 - TOLATA/cohabitation claims for unmarried couples
 - Applications to vary or enforce
 - Representation at First Appointments, FDR and Final Hearings
 - Non-molestation / non mol
- Family-Children
 - Live With orders
 - Contact issues
 - Parental responsibility
 - Allegations of domestic abuse
 - Specific issue and prohibited steps including abduction and also:

- Landlord and Tenant
- UK Immigration Law
- Contract and Commercial Disputes

Stephanie helps members of the public facing difficult disputes over child arrangements, contact, specific issues and prohibited steps, and parental responsibility. Stephanie is experienced in cases between parents with local authority involvement, as well as allegations of domestic abuse and cases with a foreign element.

Outside of these key areas of law, I am always willing to consider any enquiry requiring the experience or knowledge needed to help you or your client. Please call me direct or the support team on 01823247247 if you would like to discuss any aspect of this profile.
