Bilal Hanif (2013)

Barrister

Introduction:

Prior to joining Clerksroom in 2021, Bilal was Head of Costs at a leading national costs firm. During his tenure, Bilal was responsible for leading a successful team of solicitors and senior costs draftsmen and played a pivotal role in the rising success of the company, building a brand that was synonymous for quality and professionalism. Additionally, Bilal was regularly instructed on many notable and high-profile matters, often involving multi-million pound cases.

Bilal has a wealth of successful advocacy experience (in-house and freelance work) which can be attributed to his technical prowess, competitive nature and fighting spirit. Bilal regularly appears in County Courts across the country and has also appeared in the High Court (SCCO). He is a fierce negotiator and is highly regarded for his specialised expertise.

Bilal has undertaken various bespoke commercially focused courses adapted from international business schools including Harvard, INSEAD and London Business School. These experiences combined with his role as Head of Costs help Bilal to understand the pressures and challenges which solicitors face, thereby enabling him to provide practical and commercially viable solutions.

Bilal is fluent in Urdu, Punjabi and Hindi.
