Feedback:

"We have instructed Chelsea several times, often at short notice and with tight deadlines. Chelsea has been fantastic, nothing is too much trouble and she is always available to help. Chelsea goes above and beyond - even drawing up a checklist/table for the client to complete prior to a conference in order to make the best use of time. I have attended court with Chelsea on a few occasions and I agree with my clients in that she is professional yet down to earth and very good at explaining any issues to the client in a calm yet empathetic way. 10/10"

Introduction:

Chelsea is a qualified barrister and New York attorney. She has an eclectic background, having previously worked in a variety of roles, including as a clerk and paralegal. Chelsea successfully transferred to the Bar of England and Wales and was called in 2019. Since then, she has worked as a compliance consultant, legal assistant, attorney and advocate, keeping her legal knowledge and skills current.

Having managed her own attorney practice for multiple years, Chelsea enjoys client interaction and prioritises high standards and client engagement within her work. She is a trained mediator and is accredited to undertake direct access work.

Due to the variety within the work Chelsea has been able to undertake she has experience in a broad range of civil work; however, the main bulk of her work and focus of her practice is in property, media and regulatory law.

Chelsea is based in London and the South East, but is able to travel anywhere in the UK.

Very experienced in:

- Land & Property - L&T Residential, Possession, Housing Disrepair & Cavity Wall Claims
