

Charles Davey (1989)

Barrister

Contact:

Email: davey@clerksroom.com

Call: 01823 247 247

Feedback:

"...extremely satisfied with you (Charles Davey) and would certainly recommend you as a Barrister .... None compare to your professional and courteous manner."

Lay client

Bank manager in relation to compromise agreement

Introduction:

Charles is an experienced civil practitioner of depth and diversity and is popular as a confident, robust and skilful advocate who enjoys a challenge.

He is based in Hertfordshire and enjoys a varied practice which takes him nationwide.

Key areas of practice:

Employment

Charles has extensive contentious employment experience. He has appeared in numerous cases before Employment Tribunals and also in the Employment Appeal Tribunal.

Personal Injury

Charles conducts personal injury work at all levels including road traffic and fraud cases. His industrial disease experience includes NIHL/WRULD, Industrial Deafness, Vibration White Finger, Occupational Stress, and asbestos related disease.

Civil Actions Against the Police

Charles has advised and represented many clients in claims arising out of alleged police misconduct or negligence. In recent years his clients have included:

a Claimant repeatedly arrested, prosecuted and assaulted by his police officer neighbour

a university Professor

a police officer arrested on suspicion of burglary

a Claimant arrested under the Mental Health Act

a Claimant alleging misfeasance by senior officers in a Professional Standards Department in the investigation of his complaints

a Claimant stabbed by her former partner alleging breach of duty by the police

In one claim the jury awarded the Claimant a sum of £600,000 by way of aggravated and exemplary damages

Costs

He is regularly instructed in costs matters for both paying and receiving parties including in Senior Court Costs Office cases.

Commercial, Chancery & Property

Charles practises in contentious work including landlord and tenant, boundary disputers, conveyancing disputes, sale of goods, contractual and commercial disputes, professional negligence of solicitors and surveyors

Other areas

In addition to his key areas, Charles has a wealth of experience, and accepts instructions in, most common law areas including contract, credit hire (Defendant), consumer law, and insolvency. He has also been instructed in professional regulatory work before the General Medical Council.

He is also accredited to undertake public access work and authorised to conduct litigation. His litigation portfolio includes actions against the police

Memberships

Charles is a member of the Employment Bar Association

Areas of Specialism:

---

- Costs
- Employment
- Public Access Accredited

Personal:

---

Charles is married with three children. He is a keen French speaker and Francophile having met his wife in Paris and having lived in France for several years. He has written several books about living and working in France. He was the lead contributor to "The English of Law: England & Wales" (published by Belin) for French students of English Law in collaboration with academics from L'Université Panthéon Assas (Paris II)