

Paul O'Callaghan (2008) LLB (Hons)

General Information

Paul O'Callaghan joined Clerksroom in 2013 having previously practised as a solicitor-advocate with a national firm of solicitors.

Paul is now ten years Call (where do the years go!) and he is a specialist employment and personal injury lawyer. Paul's PI practice is focused on road traffic accidents and holiday sickness claims.

Employment

Paul is a member of the Employment Lawyers Association and a specialist employment lawyer with a national practice encompassing the full range of employment law issues including but not limited to:-

Unfair Dismissal;
Constructive Dismissal;
Wrongful Dismissal;
Discrimination;
Equal Pay;
Whistleblowing;
Flexible Working.

Paul regularly appears at tribunals nationwide but he prides himself on a conciliatory approach to employment disputes and he is pleased to say that the vast majority of cases that he deals with settle amicably without the need for a hearing which ultimately saves the parties time and costs. Paul's employment work is generally split at 75% Claimant and 25% Respondent.

Paul offers advice in writing and by telephone as well as assistance with disciplinary and grievance procedures, document drafting and advocacy at interim and final hearings.

Personal Injury and Civil Litigation

Paul maintains a busy civil litigation practice which includes acting in property, contract and business disputes although the majority of his work is PI and specifically RTA and Holiday Sickness claims.

Paul regularly provides drafting and advisory services to solicitors who routinely instruct him to attend hearings including:-

Pre-Action Disclosure;
CCMC;
Applications;
Trials including liability, causation and LVI / alleged fraud.
Motorcycle Claims;
Credit Hire;
Costs;
Inquests.

You will find Paul to be an experienced and tenacious advocate and when not in Court you may find him 'relaxing' by entering endurance running events. As such he is always willing to go the extra mile!
(Marathon PB 2hr 59 minutes).

Paul is flexible and approachable and always willing to have an informal discussion about your case or query at any stage in proceedings.

Paul is willing to accept instructions from the public on a direct access basis and he has been granted full litigation privileges.

Paul has received excellent feedback from both lay and professional clients and he always welcomes feedback so that he can continue to improve upon the service that he provides.

Paul is based in Cardiff but he can attend Court anywhere within England and Wales.

Paul was proud to represent Team GB at the Sydney Olympics in 2000 and after a long hiatus he has recently returned to his sport of target shooting.

Paul is also a qualified pilot and happy to advise on aviation law matters.
