

Taj Uddin PIBA / FLBA

General Information

Taj focuses on Personal Injury and Ancillary Relief (Divorce Money).

His specialist areas are informed by a continued broader practice, including Housing Disrepair, Property, Insolvency and beyond.

Taj qualified as a solicitor at CMS Cameron McKenna LLP (London) in 2009 and went on to found a tech startup dealing with relationships between landlords and tenants. In 2010, he qualified as a barrister and became public access accredited in 2013.

Taj tends to work on cases from the outset, developing a relationship and strategy with instructing solicitors and lay clients.

Areas of law

- Personal Injury
- Ancillary Relief
- Housing Disrepair
- Insolvency
- Property & Chancery
- Costs (Particular experience in Clinical Negligence Defence Costs)
- Credit Hire (Claimant & Defendant)

Personal Injury

- Claimant and defendant
- Pleading complex Schedules of Losses with significant future losses (pleaded up to £2,000,000)
- RTA, EL, PL, Consumer product

Ancillary Relief/Money after Divorce

- Dissipation of assets
- Respondents not engaging with court proceedings
- Claims of bigamy
- Foreign assets
- Insolvency

Commercial/Chancery

- Particular experience in trusts arising from transfer of substantial assets within a family/friends/carers
- Construction disputes
- TOLATA
- Breach of contract

Housing Disrepair

- Claimants - private and social tenants
- Defendants - private landlords and local authorities

Memberships

- Personal Injury Bar Association
- Family Law Bar Association

Education

- Mansfield College, University of Oxford

Languages

- Bengali (Sylheti dialect)

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX