

Alistair Pye

General Information

A civil barrister and former solicitor-advocate with 30 years of litigation experience, Alistair Pye is a talented and committed advocate, advisor and mediator (see Alistair's mediation profile here).

Alistair qualified as a solicitor, then later as a solicitor-advocate, a mediator and construction adjudicator. He spent most of his career at DAC Beachcroft's legacy firms, initially in broad commercial litigation and then focusing exclusively on construction and insurance disputes, where he undertook much of his own advocacy. He is a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Accredited to accept instructions on a public access basis, Alistair's practice is nationwide and covers fast and multi-track, arbitration and construction adjudication, as well as injunctions and interim applications. He is also happy to help if you need a skilled advocate to fight your small claim dispute.

Alistair is well known and popular for his relaxed, approachable manner as well as his first-rate analytical mind honed over 30 years as a litigation lawyer at the highest levels. These attributes, combined with meticulous preparation and determination, have brought him considerable success across all types of civil disputes, from modest boundary cases to complex, high-value commercial matters.

Areas of law

- Construction & Engineering Disputes
- Company, Commercial, Business Disputes & Money Claims
- Contract, Tort & Debt Disputes
- Property Disputes - including landlord & tenant (commercial and residential), boundary, rights of way, nuisance and trespass disputes
- Professional Negligence – including construction professionals, solicitors, IFAs and surveyors
- Bankruptcy & Insolvency
- Costs
- Employment
- Employers' Liability
- Insurance
- Road Traffic Accidents

Education

- Law, University of West of England
- Literature & Philosophy, Sussex University

Personal Interests

Alistair is married with three grown-up daughters. He spends a lot of time trying to hold back the years and stay fit via hill walking, cycling and other outdoor pursuits. He also enjoys travel (particularly in Spain), history and a good debate in the local pub.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX