

Caroline Langley BSc(Hons), Barrister, Mediator, Attorney, National Institute of Trial Advocacy Instructor, Honoura

General Information

An expert in international and European law, Caroline Langley is qualified and practices as a barrister and mediator in four jurisdictions: England & Wales, the United States, Hong Kong and Ireland. She has handled numerous complex international cases spanning Europe, the United States, Asia, Argentina, Guatemala, Greece, and South Africa.

With nearly three decades of experience, Caroline navigates complex international treaties to successfully negotiate outstanding solutions for her clients. She has worked with foreign governments, including the US Department of State and the US Citizens Service, the World Organisation for Cross-border Co-operation in Civil and Commercial Matters and the Court of Justice of the European Union.

Areas of law

- International Law
- European Law

Appointments

- Lectures for both professional legal entities and academic institutions at graduate and post-graduate levels
- National Institute of Trial Advocacy instructor
- Appeared on CNN and FOX News
- Held executive positions within the American Bar Association International Section

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX