

Hugo de Rijke BA (Joint Hons), MA, FHEA

General Information

Hugo specialises in personal injury, road traffic, consumer and contract disputes, employment and education law. In addition to his litigation practice, he is an Associate Professor of Law at Plymouth University, where he teaches contract law and dispute resolution skills, and has experience in relation to student complaints and appeals, as well as employment matters.

Hugo is very approachable and is a highly skilled and confident advocate, with the ability to get the best results for his clients through meticulous preparation, drive and determination. Since recently joining Clerksroom, he has received excellent feedback, both from clients and those instructing him.

He is happy to provide advice, support and representation in the following areas:

Personal Injury

- RTA claims
- Fraud/fundamental dishonesty
- Employers liability claims
- Stage 3 hearings

Road traffic

- Disqualifications
- 'Exceptional hardship' applications

Contract and Consumer

- Contract disputes / breach
- Unfair terms in consumer contracts
- Consumer rights claims
- Travel / holiday claims

Employment

- Unfair and constructive dismissal
- Redundancy
- Discrimination claims
- Contractual disputes

Education

- Admissions
- Academic misconduct
- Plagiarism
- Disciplinary issues
- Discrimination claims
- Breach of contract

Email:

mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX