

Lauren Le Franc

General Information

Before commencing pupillage, Lauren read law as an undergraduate, attaining several distinctions and the highest overall performance across commercial law subjects. She worked as a County Court Advocate for 2 years, appearing on behalf of clients in debt recovery and landlord and tenant matters.

Representing clients across several practice areas in courts across the country, Lauren has gained experience of law in a practical setting and built up a varied practice. She has been praised for her exemplary time management, as well as her ability to build positive relationships with clients and members of the bar.

During her first six pupillage, Lauren assisted with various matters, including a defamation case in the High Court, as well as injunctions, discrimination, family law, insurance claims and advisory in relation to insolvency.

She seeks to build a common law practice with a mixture of advisory and litigation work.
