

Gerry Heap

General Information

Gerry is a senior personal injury, commercial and local government specialist. He is popular with clients for his friendly and down-to-earth approach and has a reputation as a highly-skilled advocate who enjoys complex and challenging cases. Based in South Wales, Gerry has a busy national practice and has appeared in all Courts, including the House of Lords.

Areas of law

- Personal Injury
- Commercial Litigation
- Local Government

Personal Injury (Claimant & Defendant)

- High-Value Claims
- Industrial Disease (with particular emphasis on NIHL/deafness cases)
- Clinical Negligence
- Fraud

Commercial Litigation

- Land/Property Disputes
- Contract
- Partnership
- Building/Construction

Local Government

- Planning
- Environmental
- Prosecutions

Memberships

- Chairman, Commons Registration Public Inquiries

Education

- M.A., Cambridge (Jesus College)

Personal Interests

When not working throughout the country, Gerry enjoys playing chess. He has represented Wales on four occasions in the European Club Cup and was the 2018 Welsh Chess Champion. He has conceded defeat in his aim to beat his son at golf (Luke plays off plus two). His wife thinks that he is too old for football and that he has finally hung up his goalkeeping gloves, but he is secretly planning a comeback.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX