

Miss Sheila Aly LLB (Hons), BVC, Accredited Mediator

IS A QUALIFIED MEDIATOR (Junior Mediator)

General Information

Professional Background

I am a CEDR, ADR Group and PMR Group accredited Civil and Commercial mediator, and am qualified to teach the CEDR Civil & Commercial course to others, and have trained hundreds of other mediators all over the world.

I have also been a practicing barrister for 14 years, with a very strong track record in Court specialising in Employment and general civil claims. In addition, I have held qualifications in coaching for 12 years, making me particularly astute at being able to get to the heart of my clients' concerns.

Why choose Sheila as your mediator?

I aim to deal with all matters that come to me in a sensitive and solution focused way, so that all parties feel heard, and so that matters can come to a win-win conclusion as swiftly as possible.

My belief is that a good mediator must show everyone concerned that they are neutral, non-judgmental, and be deeply invested in all parties coming to a conclusion and I am always conscious to display those principles within any mediation that I do.

In my capacity as a mediation trainer as well as a mediator, I am also often called upon to advice in relation to mediation issues in difficult cases for the mediators I have trained in the past. As such, I am able to assist in a variety of disputes to help all those involved in mediation to gain clarity through particularly difficult issues. My out of the box thinking, and questioning techniques have often left people thinking about their problems in new ways, increasing the likelihood that

Expertise

Ancillary relief and family money
Cohabitation claims
Consumer disputes
Company Law/Business Disputes
Contractual disputes & money claims
Defective Goods and Services
Defamation
Easements, rights of way and trespass
Employment (all aspects)
Family disputes
Harassment and injunctions
Human rights
Landlord and tenant
Negligence
Possession
Partnership
Personal injury

Professional negligence
Property
RTA's
Sport
Tort
Trusts
Wills and probate

What they say

Just wanted to say a big thanks for everything you did on this case. I think you have achieved the impossible! I didn't think for one moment that an agreement would be reached between the two of them. It sounds like you really earned your fee(!) and I'm so grateful that the agreement also protected S.

Nicky, Suffolk

"Sheila has a small arsenal of tools, methods and advice to break down and solve the problems you are experiencing. She took me through a few of her methodologies to help my working relationships over a few hours. Shay was able to help me understand where the successes and problems lay and also offered many helpful suggestions on how things might be improved".

Simon, Director of an IT Firm

"Sheila taught me to see my situation in a different way and helped me to focus on the positive aspects at a time when I could no longer see them. She is very patient and understanding, and gave me the confidence to not only deal with this situation but with whatever comes my way."

Sue, Magic Circle Law firm

Sheila is always calm, composed, confident and nothing seems to faze her. Her knowledge of Law would appear to be extensive. Miss Aly was meticulous in her preparation of our brief and conducted herself professionally

Raj & Angela Pusuram, Care Providers

Sheila managed to communicate the legal technicalities of the case in way which was wholly understood by laypeople – a skill many legal professionals lack these days and did so in an empathic, sensitive way.

Jane Dronsfield, MD at Jane & Co Ltd

"I recommend to you Sheila Aly. When faced with the complexities of employment legislation, truth is never simple to expose. My experience of Sheila was that she listened and explained and with calm and careful reasoning represented the facts of my case. No gimmicks, no confusion and a strong legal mind."

Irene Hadley, Chair of Women's Legal Aid Board (Croydon)

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX