

Adam Williams LLB (Hons)

IS A QUALIFIED MEDIATOR (Junior Mediator)

General Information

Mr Adam Williams is a qualified Barrister based on the South Eastern Circuit within a multi discipline practice but currently practices most in Criminal Proceedings.

He also specialises in Court Martials having represented a number of members of the Armed Forces across all services and presented lectures on the topic to a number of different military units. Having served in the Royal Air Force Reserves (Liverpool University Air Squadron), Adam has been complemented on his understanding of the concerns to Military personnel.

Having maintained a good relationship with Edge Hill University (the leading Sports Law research centre in the UK) Adam returns on occasion as a guest lecturer, and thus has a good knowledge of Sports law and sporting disputes.

He has been described by clients as friendly, professional and enthusiastic about all aspects of his work.

He is competent to accept instructions in relation to all areas some of which are but not limited to:-

Armed Forces;
Sporting disputes;
Engineering disputes;
Contract (including commercial);
Wills/Inheritance;
Professional negligence;
Insurance;
Land/Property;
Matrimonial;
Business/commercial disputes;
Sale of goods;
Shareholder disputes;
Fraud;
Shipping; and Costs.

CORE MEDIATION SKILLS

Approachable
Proactive
Straight talking
Commercially astute
Thorough preparation
Effective conflict management
Ability to focus on real issues
Empathetic
Reassuring
Knowledgeable

PROFESSIONAL BODIES/ASSOCIATIONS

Bar Standards Board (BSB)

Criminal Bar Association (CBA)

INTERESTS AND ACTIVITIES

Flying, Parachuting, Shooting, Theatre, Football, Climbing (Indoor instructor trained) and Hill Walking with his rescue dog Ralph.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX