

Dr Frances Burton LLB, LLM, MA, PhD, MCI Arb, Retired Barrister

IS A QUALIFIED MEDIATOR (Junior Mediator)

General Information

Frances has had a long career as a practitioner-academic, and has been a mediator since 2000 when she gained the University of Notre Dame Certificate in ADR following a training course with ADR Chambers UK, then a subsidiary of the Canadian ADR Chambers Inc Group in Toronto, from which she absorbed the Canadian 'can do' attitude to resolving disputes outside court which has now demonstrated such a high success rate.

She is now a Retired Judge of HM Courts and Tribunals Service and a Retired Barrister concentrating on Dispute Resolution, whether as a Mediator, Family Arbitrator or as an Academic, having also been teaching Dispute Resolution recently on an LLM in International Commercial Law for Buckinghamshire New University and training mediators for Align Mediation, a small panel in the Cotswolds, but is now exclusive to Clerksroom

She has a wealth of experience which can be brought to bear on resolving disputes in a variety of contexts, having previously been a Judge of the Administrative Appeals Chamber of the Upper Tribunal of the Tribunals Service 2009-2011, a Judge of the Consumer Credit Tribunal 2010-2011, a Judicial Member of the Transport Tribunal 2002-2009, and a Legal Chairman of the Residential Property Tribunal Service, 1996-2011, where she also regularly mediated in residential property disputes for the RPTS Panel

Frances is a mediator who is happy to tackle the resolution of any dispute which the parties want to settle but particularly mediates in the following specialist areas:

- * English and International Family Property (French and Spanish spoken)
- * Inheritance disputes
- * Financial and Property disputes, including Financial Provision on Divorce, Nullity or Dissolution of Civil Partnership or Cohabitation Claims on Relationship Breakdown
- * Family Business Disputes
- * Landlord & Tenant and Housing
- * Service Charge, Property Management, Lease Extension and Enfranchisement disputes
- * Employment Law, especially Discrimination Against Women
- * Further and Higher Education disputes
- * Low value disputes where litigation costs would be disproportionate

Academic:

Co-Director and Research Fellow, Centre for Family Law and Practice, 2009-date

Senior Lecturer in Law, Aston University, Birmingham.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX