

Rebecca Hodgkin LLB Hons , LLM (Edinburgh)

General Information

Rebecca specialises in employment law and family law, regularly appearing in courts and tribunals across the country in multi-day/week cases. She represents both claimants/applicants and respondents/defendants in often highly complex matters.

Professional and lay clients have described Rebecca as approachable, persuasive and confidence-inspiring. She is perhaps best described as a confident and tenacious “Modern Counsel” dedicated to achieving the best result for her clients. She has a very strong belief in client care in cases which can be highly stressful and retains a loyal and ever-growing client base.

An established Public Access practitioner since 2008, Rebecca is regularly instructed on this basis for employment tribunals and courts across the UK. She prides herself on her clear, practical and compelling style.
