

Blair Toner (2010)

General Information

Employment

Blair is a specialist in employment law with a focus on Employment Tribunal Advocacy, advice and litigation. He is regularly instructed in all types of hearings in the Tribunal including lengthy complex trials and group litigation. Blair has worked in-House at various law firms where he also balanced his advocacy practice with a caseload. This experience provided a clear understanding of costs / case management and the service solicitors and lay clients expect. He is based in London and his practice takes him nationwide.

Shortly after being called to the Bar, Blair worked as Advocate in one of the largest UK based law firms. He was in court most days and also had a busy written practice. During this time he built expertise in personal injury and general civil work and he continues to see instructions in this area.

Blair's common practise areas are:

- Employment Tribunal Advocacy
- Employment Litigation
- Settlement Agreements
- Unfair Dismissal
