

Mr Ralph McMullan

General Information

A highly experienced lawyer and advocate, Ralph spent 20 years as a solicitor before transferring to the Bar. Since being Called to the Bar, Ralph has developed a strong family practice, dealing with Children Act matters and financial disputes. His calm and measured approach makes him an ideal family law advocate.

Since joining Clerksroom, Ralph has received excellent feedback from those instructing him for the first time. He is approachable and enthusiastic, qualities which, combined with his drive and tactical nous, make him the "go-to" advocate for many.
