Sarah has been instructed on over 5,000 civil litigation hearings, and her main areas of practice are:

Personal Injury

Sarah has a thriving personal injury practice built on the experience she has gained from the vast amount of Stage 3 oral hearings and disposals she has undertaken. She is a popular choice of counsel for many who instruct her because of her wealth of knowledge on obtaining the best results for her clients.

Sarah also has expertise in dealing with low velocity impact (claimant LVI) cases whereby causation is denied, and fundamental dishonesty is raised.

Experienced in:

- Advising on liability
- Disposal hearings
- Advising on quantum
- Stage 3 oral hearings
- Fundamental dishonesty

Costs

Sarah has a great deal of experience representing claimants and defendants at costs and case management hearings.

Insolvency

Encompassing a wide range of litigation, Sarah's insolvency practice includes petitions for bankruptcy and winding up petitions in both the County Court and the High Court.

Housing

Her civil practice regularly includes landlord and tenant and mortgage-related hearings.

Applications

Sarah has dealt with many different types of application hearings over her 10 years of practice. She has been instructed on countless applications ranging from summary judgments and injunctions to appeal hearings across different areas of civil law.

Commercial Dispute Resolution

Sarah has experience and is happy to act in any contractual disputes arising at small claims and fast track level from simple debt collection through to misrepresentation.

Personal Interests

Sarah is married with 2 children. Her spare time is spent with her family. Away from her busy practice, Sarah loves to fit in as many holidays as she possibly can with the excuse of showing her children as much culture as possible! She enjoys all kinds of sports, from table tennis to snow skiing and water skiing.
