

Ms. Caroline Langley BSc(Hons), Barrister, Mediator, Attorney, National Institute of Trial Advocacy Instructor, Honouora

General Information

An expert in International and European Law, Caroline Langley is qualified and practices as a barrister and mediator in four jurisdictions: England & Wales, the United States, Hong Kong and Ireland. She has handled numerous complex international cases spanning Europe, the United States, Asia, Argentina, Guatemala, Greece, and South Africa. With nearly three decades of experience, Caroline Langley navigates complex international treaties to successfully negotiate outstanding solutions for her clients. She has worked with foreign governments including the US Department of State and the US Citizens Service, the World Organisation for Cross-border Co-operation in Civil and Commercial Matters and the Court of Justice of the European Union. Caroline lectures for both professional legal entities and academic institutions at graduate and post-graduate level and is also a National Institute of Trial Advocacy instructor. Caroline has appeared on CNN and FOX News and has held executive positions within the American Bar Association International Section.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX