

Gareth Nixon-Moss - The Honourable Society of the Inner Temple

General Information

Called to the bar in 1994, Gareth quickly established a successful practice in all aspects of family law with a particular interest in financial dispute resolutions and final hearings. He served as Head of Chambers at Tindal Chambers and St Albans Chambers before joining Clerksroom. He is a trained Mediator and an approved Pupil Supervisor.

Specialising in all aspects of family law, including care proceedings, public law, children matters and financial settlements, Gareth has the skill of understanding his client's concerns and making them feel at ease in what can be an unsettled time in their lives. He has a reputation for supporting his clients, understanding their wishes and is persistent in obtaining a just and fair outcome.

Gareth also assists with his family business and now practices in all matters arising from the Health and Social Care Act, the Care Quality Commission regulations and all enforcement proceedings arising therefrom. This includes advising providers regarding regulatory matters, inspections and enforcement
