About

With almost 30 years of legal experience, I am a practising barrister-at-law and an accredited mediator with a real commitment to Alternative Dispute Resolution. I pride myself on being a safe pair of hands with the drive and determination to achieve the results my clients want, using a friendly, proactive approach.

DECADES OF COMMERCIAL AND CIVIL LEGAL EXPERTISE

Over the past three decades, I have experienced a wide variety of both commercial and civil legal matters, including ethical law and dispute resolution activities. From contract disputes to contentious probate, insurance law to insolvency and redundancy to restructuring, I provide Advices and Opinions both in conference and in writing on a broad range of commercial and financial services sector issues, charities and trusts, employment and civil matters.

- Significant advocacy experience
- County Court, High Court and Court of Appeal, common law and chancery
- Mediations, arbitrations and joint settlement meetings
- Tribunals

Having worked with major Fortune 500 international companies as well as UK SMEs and private individuals, I enjoy working for and with commercial stakeholders, fellow professionals and members of the public to provide and representation for their legal needs.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIATION SUCCESS

As an accredited Mediator, I am committed to the process of Alternative Dispute Resolution and the benefits it can bring to those involved in legal disputes. Since 2007 I have undertaken over 85 mediations/Joint Settlement Meetings as mediator/chair in the UK and overseas, with a high- resolution rate.

When not in Chambers or Court, I enjoy being out on the water. I am a qualified scuba diving instructor and sail laser class and hobie cats. I also a keen wildlife and bird photographer.
