

Joseph Giret KC

General Information

Described in court as an “Iron fist in a velvet glove”, Legal 500 says Joseph Giret “puts people at ease exceptionally easily”. His practice is a blend of advisory, drafting and court appearances through litigation. Qualified under the Direct Public Access scheme., Joseph accepts instructions directly from members of the public and professional clients.

With 35 years of experience, Joseph puts his clients’ best interests front and centre. A problem solver, he delivers sensible and appropriate solutions whilst being “one of the most approachable and friendly QC’s we have had the pleasure to instruct”.

- “Exemplary technical and analytical skills”
- “Excellent choice of barrister for sensitive complex commercial litigation”
- “His skills in presenting the case were sublime... assertive, succinct and shrewd”

Joseph has lived and worked in the offshore jurisdiction of Bermuda, which operates under an American-style fused profession model. While in Bermuda, he has worked closely with attorneys from the USA and with very high net worth company representatives.
