

Graham Smith

General Information

Graham Smith

Since being called to the Bar in 2009, Graham has acted in thousands of cases in a wide variety of civil matters. He has developed exceptional negotiation and formidable witness handling skills after spending the majority of his working life in the County Court and the High Court since 2010. Graham has an excellent win ratio for his clients.

After completing his Law degree and Bar Vocational Course, Graham spent many years as a Solicitor's Agent, representing banks, businesses and private individuals in civil disputes, before completing his pupillage. Graham also lectured in Law, developing the next generation of Lawyers.

Legal expertise

- Commercial Law
- Contractual Disputes – including breach of contract, bankruptcy and debt recovery
- Land & Property Law – including Landlord & Tenant disputes
- Negligence and Medical Negligence cases
- Road Traffic Accidents & Personal Injury claims – claims & counterclaims
- Family Law – including contested Divorce, Child Residency and Harassment
- Employment Law

With an exceptional eye for detail and an analytical approach, Graham has an in-depth knowledge of the Civil Procedure Rules. Graham also has extensive expertise in the Housing Act 1988, particularly Section 8 and 21, and the strict procedures involved in tenancy.

Unique Medical Law Insight

Alongside his work as a Barrister, Graham is a Non-Executive Director for the NHS Buckinghamshire Clinical Commissioning Group, which oversees an £800 million budget. He is Chair of the NHS Buckinghamshire Primary Care Commissioning Committee and the Individual Funding Request Panel where he performs quasi-judicial functions and makes emotive decisions which are amenable to judicial review.

Pro Bono work

Graham works for the legal charity Advocate on a pro bono basis and recently worked to get a freehold housing development released from a service charge contract with a major UK housebuilder.

Professional qualifications

- Bar Vocational Course - BPP Law School
- FSA Financial Regulation (Level 3) - CISI
- Bachelor of Law, LLB – Bournemouth University

Outside the office

When not in court, Graham enjoys spending time with his 3 children, travelling, reading and playing golf. Graham is also a property developer and a private landlord.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX