

Teri Howell

General Information

Teri joined Clerksroom with a strong defendant litigation background, having spent over 10 years working in some of the largest Legal 500 law firms and a FTSE 100 insurance company.

Her extensive defendant insurance background started in the small claims track and developed into a multi-track practice after securing CILEX Fellowship status in 2015. Teri's background working for large insurer clients shines through in an effective, practical and commercial consideration to claims.
