

Nicholas Preston (1986)

General Information

Barrister, Advocate (Scotland)

Nicholas Preston undertakes contractual, commercial and regulatory work both in court and by way of advice and drafting over a range of practice areas and business sectors.

He adeptly identifies the outcome the lay client wants to achieve and works hard to find a practical resolution best suited to their needs.

Work undertaken:

- Regulatory and disciplinary
- Consumer credit
- Estate agent commission disputes
- Business property disputes including mortgage fraud
- Insolvency: corporate and personal (including licensed access)
- Company: directors' and shareholders' disputes
- Trusts and Probate
- Scots Law
- Judicial review

Experience:

Nicholas is an experienced High Court, County Court and Tribunal advocate.

He regularly and frequently participates in the Chancery Bar Litigants in Person Scheme ("CLIPS"). He is also a reviewer and panel member for Advocate and has served on Council of the Inns of Court Disciplinary Committee.

Personal:

Nicholas' main interest is music, from jazz to opera. He plays in several orchestras and composes light music.

Education:

BA degree in Classics, MA degree in Law, Certificate in Regulatory Law.

Memberships:

Chancery Bar Association, Faculty of Advocates Edinburgh.

Email: mediation@clerksroom.com

Clerksroom, Equity House, Blackbrook Park Avenue, Taunton TA1 2PX