

Ahmer Sajid LLB (Hons)

General Information

Ahmer was initially called to the bar in 1998 but chose to pursue a career in commerce before commencing practice at the bar in 2005. His commerce background provides him with useful insight into the commercial realities of litigation.

Centrally based in Birmingham, Ahmer is happy to travel wherever he is required and undertakes MOJ Stage 3 hearings, dealing with all facets and the complexities they entail on behalf of both claimants and defendants. Ahmer is also regularly instructed in credit hire matters and personal injury claims, along with other fast track and multi-track work, disposal hearings and detailed assessment hearings.
